

Searching MNCAT using Subject Headings

Try these Library of Congress subject headings when you search for books in MNCAT Search Also Under: names of individual books, e.g., Avesta, Bible, Koran, Tripitaka, Vedas, and subdivision sacred books under names of religions and religious denominations, e.g., buddhism--sacred books--lcsh

- Subject Headings:

bhagavadgita
bible--hebrew
book of mormon buddhism--sacred
cabala
hinduism--sacred books
koran
talmud
talmud--english
tao te ching
tripitaka
vedas

- Subject Subdivisions:

Try these following headings for various sacred books

Subjects with Subdivisions: examples:

bible--canon
talmud--geography
bhagavadgita--commentaries cabala--history

Other Subdivisions (try with any sacred text heading):

--canon
--chronology
--commentaries
--concordances
--criticism interpretation etc
--dictionaries
--geography
--hermeneutics
--history
--illustrations
--introductions

- Subject Headings for the Bible

There are over 2,000 subject heading combinations for the Bible. The examples below show the format for some commonly used headings and subdivisions. Do a title search when you want a particular version or translation.

Subject examples:

bible o t psalms--
paraphrases
bible as literature
bible german-- versions--luther
bible--versions

Title examples:

t=bible german
t=bible n t greek

Keyword examples:

k=bible and atlas
k=new testament and greek
k=douai.ti.
k=hebrew bible

Subject and/or title examples:

bible as literature
bible english--versions bible english--versions--douai bible latin
bible n t
bible n t epistles of paul bible n t gospels
bible n t greek bible n t luke
bible o t
bible o t apocrypha
bible o t hebrew
bible o t pentateuch bible o t ruth
bible o t song of solomon